The World DIY Market report 2015 Completely revised and updated

The World DIY Market Report is a comprehensive study recording the dynamics of the world DIY marketplace. The report will enhance your ability to keep track of the retail players throughout the world and provide a better understanding of the world situation.

Sales figures are, in the main, based on the last fiscal year.

- Records those companies who are selling hardware/home improvement products to consumers per country.
- Details which international markets each DIY focussed retailer operates in, and their future plans.
- Explains the relationship between certain retailers, buying groups and co-operatives.
- Constitutes an important list of future business prospects with many contact details included.
- Provides an overview of the world's most important markets and emerging markets to ensure that you are...
